Kiva Kitchen & Bath Announces Openings in Houston

Houston – Kitchen and bath connoisseurs are in for an inspirational experience with the opening of two new Houston-area Kiva Kitchen & Bath showrooms. Located in southwest Houston and north of The Woodlands, Kiva Kitchen & Bath offers one of the largest selections of designer-quality decorative plumbing fixtures, hardware, appliances, cabinetry and counter tops for the bath and kitchen on the Texas Gulf Coast.

The luxurious showrooms allow customers to experience the ultimate in innovative kitchen and bath design. Customers can sample the working showers or ignite a working range in the showrooms' living kitchens and bath, making it the perfect place to generate ideas and realize plans. Kiva Kitchen & Bath's knowledgeable and experienced sales associates are available to help customers tailor their vision for their lifestyle.

"It's all about the customer experience at Kiva Kitchen & Bath. Our clients aren't just buying a refrigerator or range, they are buying a way of living and entertaining in a kitchen," said James A. Cozby, CEO.

Kiva Kitchen & Bath's expertise ranges from creating the ideal kitchen - whether it's inside or outside - to creating a perfect bath – whether it's opulent or minimalist design. Kiva Kitchen & Bath enjoys relationships with a variety of customers including homebuilders, contractors, designers and homeowners, each receiving unparalleled professional attention.

"Our sales associates are industry professionals. Not only will a customer be able to find everything, but they will understand how it's used as well," said Tolar Hamblen, president.

Kiva Kitchen & Bath has been serving Texas since 1939 with its two new Houston locations at 7071 Southwest Freeway, 713-781-2222 and 11133 I-45 South, Suite 230, 936-539-6336. Kiva Kitchen & Bath also serves Dallas, Austin, Fort Worth, San Antonio, Marble Falls and Grapevine and has four locations in Southern California. For more information, please visit www.kivahome.com.
